Selectmen's Report

To the Taxpayers of West Rutland:

We have drawn orders on the general account amounting to $11,485.40. Of this amount $2,000.00 was used to pay two of the bonds, Nos. 1 and 13; $1,280.33 for town poor, and $870.00 for three permanent bridges.

We had a tax of 30 cents on the dollar, as against 35 cents the previous year.

The school board has overdrawn its account $711.75. The directors ask for an appropriation of $10,500.00 to pay this deficit and maintain the schools for the ensuing year. Therefore, we would recommend that a school tax be raised of sufficient amount to pay this deficit and support the schools, so that it will not be necessary for the school board to draw on the general account. Rev. T. R. Carty has resigned from the board, and it will be necessary to elect some one in his place.

School Directors' Report

To the Taxpayers of West Rutland:

Your schools are all in good condition, with the exception of District 8, which is badly overcrowded and needs immediate attention. This year we painted and thoroughly repaired the school building in District 7, which makes it very much warmer. This building is now in first class condition, and makes a very acceptable school room. We also had to do quite a little repairing on the building in District 21, the most important being the fitting up of a room in the basement for a recitation room. In connection with this room it is possible to have a first class physical and chemical laboratory which, at present, is very much needed.

Through the courtesy of Prof. P. R. Leavenworth we were enabled to introduce drawing and music into our schools, and secured the services of two teachers from the Castleton Normal School at a comparatively small expense.

Four new teachers have been employed: Miss Minnie Quinlan, Miss Gertrude Raleigh, Miss Katherine Cline and Miss Margaret O'Rourke. They have been assigned to Districts 21, 9, 8 and 6 respectively.

We have drawn the following orders:

Report of Superintendent of Schools

During the past year 709 children have attended the public schools of the town. They have been distributed as follows:

District 21.....	376
District 7.....	237
District 6.....	38
District 8.....	48
District 9.....	10

At the opening of the present term thirty-two pupils left the public schools to enter the Polish school, opened in the basement of the new church.

There are twenty-two regular and three special teachers employed.

Miss O'Brien has charge of the penmanship (the Palmer method), and under her instruction the children are showing marked improvement.

The work of Miss Eveland, instructor in music, and of Miss Pierce, instructor in drawing and color work, is of a high order and is proving both pleasant and profitable.

The addition of Miss Eveland and Miss Pierce, both teachers at the Normal School at Castleton, to our corps of teachers, has filled a long-felt want in our schools.

Without exception, I have found the teachers conscientious and painstaking, seeking the best to bring to their pupils, and in various ways improving themselves to be better able to fill the positions they hold.

Something should be done to relieve the present conditions in District 8. The seating capacity is far too limited, and the outlook is that the numbers will increase rather than decrease.

The completion of the new mill and several new houses in the vicinity will certainly draw new families to this part of the town.

If the parents and townspeople could realize how much good a visit from them does, they would certainly make an effort to visit the schools, at least once a term. I mean the regular everyday sessions, not the special exercises that are occasionally held.

A visitor is an incentive to study, careful work and good behavior.

It is also the parents' duty to aid the teachers in maintaining a high standard in all school work, attendance, punctuality, deportment and lessons.

Parents, co-operate with the teachers, show an interest in the schools, and by so doing encourage the children to renewed effort in their work.

MRS. E. C. MAC KELSEY,
Superintendent of Schools.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

There have been 5,373 books loaned during the year ending February 15, 1907.

Eighty-seven new books have been added to the library by purchase and two books, "Uncle Terry," by Munn, and "The Red Keggars," by Thwing, have been donated by friends.

The tables have been supplied with the leading magazines and papers as heretofore, and the Harper's Bazaar has been furnished this year regularly by a friend.

Twelve dollars and ten cents has been received from the fines, sale of cards and catalogues. Five dollars and ninety-two cents of this amount has been used for needed supplies, leaving a balance on hand of $6.18, which will be turned over to the treasurer.
